Restaurant Ratings

We show the sanitation violations for the restaurants with lowest scores according to county inspectors.

2:45                      10/10/2011                      5PM

Dashboard Distractions

In many new cars you don't need your phone. Many carmakers are incorporating access to social media and the web. But Consumer Reports warns that the services and sometimes complex controls raise serious safety concerns.

2:05                      10/11/2011                      5:30PM

Buying Used Cars

While some people just want a brand new car no matter what, it's no secret its value plummets the moment it leaves the showroom. Solid research and diligence can pay off when you find a great car at a great price.

2:00                      10/12/2011                      5PM

Better CFLs

CFLs are not the light bulb of choice for many people. But Consumer Reports' latest tests of more than 26 of the newest CFLs show that the bulbs are getting better!

2:15                      10/13/2011                      5PM

Top Car Waxes

Consumer Reports just put 19 car waxes through some pretty tough tests! The tests included liquids and pastes from companies such as Nu Finish and Turtle Wax to higher-end ones from Zymol and Auto Glym.

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report
October 1, 2011 – December 31, 2011

2:00 10/17/2011 5PM

Laundry Detergents

Consumer Reports tested over 60 laundry detergents. For conventional top-loaders, Consumer Reports recommends Wisk Deep Clean New Stain Spectrum Technology. For high-efficiency washers, Consumer Reports named Target's Up & Up Fresh Breeze liquid laundry detergent a best buy at 11 cents a load.

2:35 10/18/2011 5PM

Best Brownies

Consumer Reports tested hundreds of brownies from 13 recipes. At the top were Trader Joe's, which sell for $3 a box. Barefoot Contessa's were also rated excellent, but retail for $10 a box which is a little pricey.

2:20 10/19/2011 5:30PM

Cutting Energy Bills

TVs and computers suck a lot of electricity. Ask your cable company for a new set-top box that meets Energy Star's 3.0 standards. Also, try putting your computer in sleep or hibernate mode when not using it.

2:35 10/20/2011 5PM

Bank Fees

Banks looking to recoup billions of dollar in losses via customers. Consumers now having to pay debit fee that retailers used to pay. Consumer Reports says start reading every piece of mail or statement from banks to make sure you aren't being nickel and dimed.

2:30 10/21/2011 5PM

Restaurant Ratings

We show the sanitation violations for the restaurants with lowest scores according to county inspectors.

3:10 10/25/2011 6PM

Costume Injury

Rodeo bull riding costume left 11-year-old with third degree burn on his leg last Halloween. The batteries started leaking and burned through the thin costume fabric, spilling onto his leg while he trick-or-treated. He didn't notice until he got home later that evening.

2:10 10/26/2011 5PM

Viking Range Problem

Viking kitchen range found to short out and melt by Consumer Reports. They ran the test twice and recommend you don't buy it. CR recommends the $800 LG model instead.

2:25 10/27/2011 5PM

Top Coffeemakers

Consumer Reports tested a variety of popular coffeemakers. In the end, they recommended several, including the $35 Mr. Coffee. Top-rated was Senseo Supreme SL for $125.

2:15	11/01/2011	5PM
Stirrers As Seen On TV The As-Seen-On-TV industry racks in $300 billion a year. Its self-stirrers are a popular item, but Consumer Reports says those should be chucked. They stalled and stopped in cheese sauces and messed up with sautéed veggies. CR's conclusion is that you're better off investing in a spoon.
2:40	11/02/2011	5PM
Tough Insurance Choices Consumer Reports just analyzed 800 health insurance plans and came up with a list of things to keep in mind when looking for the right one. Next year, insurance companies will be required to use a standardized form that clearly spells out deductibles and co-pays.
2:45	11/03/2011	5PM
Accurate Thermometers New thermometers read body temperature with infrared scan of forehead. They are much faster and more accurate than old school stick thermometers. They are, however, slightly pricey at $40-$80 each.
2:35	11/04/2011	5PM
Restaurants By Request We show the sanitation violations for the restaurants with lowest scores according to county inspectors.
2:35	11/07/2011	5PM
Haggling For Healthcare For many people, health care costs are ballooning—what can you do? 5 On Your Side says, negotiate! Simply asking your health insurance company to pay less could save you thousands, like one woman whose son has cystic fibrosis.
2:45	11/08/2011	5PM
Better Wines Most of us know the feeling of standing in the wine aisle and looking at bottle after bottle of pretty labels and fancy names! Thank goodness for Consumer Reports testers. They got the enviable job of blind taste testing more than one hundred red and white wines. They found high price does not always mean a tastier wine.
3:05	11/09/2011	5PM
Balance Transfer Credit Cards With the increasing number of credit card offers so many of us are getting, touting low initial-interest rates and attractive cash-back deals, the deals are enticing to a lot of people! But a big, red, flashing warning – before you jump at an offer, check the fine print!
4:40	11/10/2011	5PM
Consumer Reports Tour Week after week we bring you the latest research information from Consumer Reports investigations and product tests and it's always interesting. The non-profit group just celebrated 75 years of testing and invited us to come see how they do it.

Does Proactiv Work

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report

October 1, 2011 – December 31, 2011

It's just a rite of passage for most teenagers — 8 in 10 get acne! For that matter so do many adults! That's why products that claim to fight acne are big business. But does it really work? Consumer Reports tested it along with two other acne treatments. They all contain a key ingredient: benzoyl peroxide. The recommendation from Consumer Reports—try Oxy Maximum— you'll likely get similar results and save a lot of money.

Save On Electronics

Tablets, cameras, TVs and e-Readers! They're all among the most wanted electronic gifts this holiday season! If you're the one giving those great gifts, you have lots of options of where you can buy them! Options often come with better service and prices! In fact, the highest rated places to buy according to a Consumer Reports reader's poll is online.

AA Batteries

With the holidays here, it's a good idea to go ahead and stock up on batteries or even give batteries with any gift that needs them. But now you can get batteries that say they're advanced, ultimate, gold, max, super duper! Consumer Reports just tested a bunch of AA's to find out which ones rate an A!

2:25 11/18/2011 5PM

Restaurants By Review

We show the sanitation violations for the restaurants with lowest scores according to county inspectors.

2:50 11/21/2011 5PM

Warehouse Savings

Sam's Club, BJ's Wholesale Club and Costco wholesale stores all say they offer up to 30 percent discounts on many brand items. So why don't you always see those savings? Consumer Reports says, people buy way more than they plan to get. That means resist the urge to browse. You can get great deals on electronics and jewelry, but is that what you headed in to buy? If you're short on willpower, Consumer Reports says try shopping at the club's websites.

Dangerous Flea Meds

They are furry, loving, adored members of the family. But dogs and cats are also the perfect mode of transportation for fleas and ticks! Insects that are dangerous to them and to us. That's why millions of us rely on what are called Spot On flea and tick treatments. They're easy and effective. But many pet owners have found that the products can also be dangerous..

Home Underinsured

Hurricane Irene left one man's basement five feet deep in water -- a reminder of why it's crucial to review your homeowner's insurance before natural disasters strike. Consumer Reports says also check out the financial history of the insurance company.

Retail Naughty Or Nice

The holiday shopping season is here! Returns are always a big part of that process. Consumer Reports did the research and found some companies make it easy and others, not so much! One of the friendliest stores: Costco. Amazon.com makes the nice list for taking a stand against wasteful, hard-to-open packaging and American Express is on the list for its "peace of mind" policy. On the Consumer Reports naughty list are; Game Stop, RadioShack, Verizon and SiriusXM.

Cell Service

Consumer Reports is out with its annual ratings of cell-phone carriers. From the nation's largest carries, to smaller ones, this list compares them all.

2:00 12/08/2011 5PM

iPhone 4S vs. Other Phones

Thinking about getting that special someone a new phone for Christmas! A slick, fancy smartphone could score you big points. But which phone is best? 5 On Your Side's Monica Laliberte is here with a look. Apple's iPhone 4S tops a lot of lists this year. But is it worth it? And is it the only game in town?

2:00 12/09/2011 5PM

Restaurant Ratings

Roaches and flies on the move! That's what one inspector encountered inside the kitchen of one local restaurant. What else did they find? Monica Laliberte shares this week's restaurant inspection reports.

2:00 12/12/2011 5:30PM

Best Headphones

In some ways, it's like we're going back in time! Headphones, even the over-the-ear "head band" style, are expected to be hot gifts this year! They range in price from as little as $10 to as much as $500. Is there a big difference? 5 On Your Side's Monica Laliberte is here to tell us.

2:00 12/13/2011 5:30PM

Pocket Video Cameras

Many of us have cell phones that shoot great video. Some phones even shoot in high definition! They're certainly easy to use and make it easy to share with family and friends. But if you're looking for a regular pocket video camera, many new ones on the market could make a great gift..

2:00 12/13/2011 5PM

Hot Toys

11 Days to go and you need to find a toy or two! You want one that has staying power. 5 On Your Side's Monica Laliberte is here with some more ideas. The good news for gift givers is that you have lots of hot toy options! Last week we had a list from Consumer Reports. Now another toy expert weighs in -- from action-packed games to star studded dolls. We have some ideas the kids on your toy list will love.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Playing with Fire" (9:00-10:00p) - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden -- at the time Hollywood's hottest nightclub -- and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio's girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multi-million dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as "Mister Big". Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla's lawyer; Michelle Braun, Internet madam; Mike Degnan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O'Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. Onscreen graphics: The Los Angeles City Council has renewed a $75,000 reward for information leading to a conviction in this case. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Amanda Knox: The Untold Story" (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to "A Long Way From Home" (OAD: 04/12/08) and "American Girl: Italian Nightmare" (OAD: 04/11/09), the story of Amanda Knox, an American exchange student who was convicted, along with her Italian boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito, of murdering Amanda's British roommate, Meredith Kercher in 2007. On Monday (10/03), Knox and Sollecito had their convictions overturned and were acquitted. This report details the manipulation and sexual intimidation Amanda endured while behind bars, in her own words, from a letter she wrote. Also included, are exclusive video diaries, collected over the course of ten months, from Madison Paxton, Amanda's best friend, who moved to Italy to support her friend. Interviewed: Madison Paxton (friend); Bob Graham (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Curt Knox (Knox's father); Edda Ellis (Knox's mother); Nina Burleigh (author, investigating the case). (See also: "A Long Way From Home" (OAD: 04/12/08); "American Girl, Italian Nightmare" (OAD: 04/11/09), which was a followup to "A Long Way From Home"; and "American Girl, Italian Murder: The Verdict" (OAD: 12/05/09), a followup to both "American Girl, Italian Nightmare" and "A Long Way From Home"). 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Odem, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Ampour Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. 60:00                      10/22/2011                      10:00PM

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Killing Fields" - a report about a desolate strip of land between Houston and Galveston where over 30 young women and girls have disappeared or have been murdered, and a followup to "Killer in Friendswood" (OAD: 05/01/97), which detailed the disappearance and death of 12-year-old Laura Smither. With this weekend's release of a film entitled "The Texas Killing Fields", attention has been rekindled about some of the cases, including the story of Krystal Baker. In 1996, Baker, whose great-aunt was movie star Marilyn Monroe, disappeared from Texas City and was found two weeks later near the Louisiana border, beaten to death and sexually assaulted. In 1997, Laura Smither went out to jog and disappeared and her body was found weeks later. When another young woman disappeared, the Smithers joined the search, as did Tim Miller, whose daughter, Laura Miller, was kidnaped and murdered when she was sixteen. Laura was one of four young women murdered and dumped along a remote area that earned the name "the killing fields". Journalist Skip Hollandsworth chronicled the case for Texas Monthly, in which a brilliant scientist, Robert Abel, became a suspect, but police could never find a connection. Police detectives Brian Goetschius and Michael Land are investigating, but as Hollandsworth says, it's clear that it has been various men who have done different things to these women, not one serial killer. As the movie is released, there is the reality that many of these cases remain unsolved. The actors hope that the film will help make a difference. Just after the film wrapped, a big break came up in the Krystal Baker case: DNA was submitted to a nationwide computer data bank, and a Louisiana man, Kevin Edison Smith, arrested on a drug charge, came back as a match. He has been charged with murder and will go on trial in December. The Smithers don't have DNA evidence, but they believe they know who killed their daughter: William Reece, the prime suspect in another case. Motivated by his loss, Tim Miller founded the rescue group Equusearch, which over the years, has helped look for missing people and located scores of bodies. For now, the killings seem to have stopped: no new cases of murder have arisen. Included interviews with: journalist Skip Hollandsworth; screenwriter Don Ferrarone, actor Sam Worthington; investigators Brian Goetschius and Michael Land; Jeanie Baker, mother of victim Krystal Baker; Bob and Gay Smither, parents of victim Laura Smither; Tim Miller, father of victim Laura Miller. 60:00                      10/29/2011                      10:00PM
48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The OC" - A report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life; moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. On screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. Included interviews with: daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voth; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Angelo McDonald, defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Pvt. Needham's War" - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham had returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He also suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He had known Villagomez, who had also struggled on and off with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him; his drinking escalated after that. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend, Renee Stoner, came to the house, which upset Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in Stoner's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez and he was never able to provide a clear explanation for the killing. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. To make his case, Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive - he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but that he needed to be held accountable for what he did. On screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. Interviewed are: Villagomez's close friends Sarah and Spencer Savino; Mike Needham, Sr. (father) and Mike Needham, Jr. (brother); Joe Gaul, Orange County homicide detective;

48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "Vanity Fair: Hollywood Scandal" - a trio of investigations presented by staff writers of Vanity Fair magazine. 1) "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage" - Sam Kashner reports on the just re-opened case of actress Natalie Wood's death by drowning. This past weekend, after thirty years of rumors, the Los Angeles police department has re-opened the investigation. On Thanksgiving weekend in 1981, Natalie Wood, her husband Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken, her co-star in her latest film, were boating off of the coast of Catalina Island, on Wagner's vessel, the Splendour. Hours later, Wood's body was found floating in the Pacific Ocean. An investigation found no suggestion of foul play and it was ruled an accidental drowning. Now, based on new information, the police have re-opened the case. Interviewed are: Dennis Davern, the captain of the boat, who now admits that he lied to police about that night; Marti Rulli, a longtime friend of Davern's who has spent thirty years investigating the death; Mart Crowley, a close personal friend of Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner; Marilyn Wayne, who was on a nearby boat that night; Detective Duane Rasure, the original investigator on the case. In a written statement, the Wagner family says that it supports the investigation and trust the new information will be judged on the credibility of the source. 2) "The Gangster and The Goddess" - Patricia Bosworth reports on the 1958 stabbing death of gangster Johnny Stompanato. Actress Lana Turner was a much-married, Academy Award-nominated actress who became involved with Stompanato, not knowing he was gangster Mickey Cohen's bodyguard. She tried to break off the relationship, and during an argument between the two at her Beverly Hills home, he was stabbed to death by her daughter Cheryl Crane. Crane was charged with murder, put on trial and the event was eventually ruled a justifiable homicide. Turner continued her career and died at age 75, though many still believe that Turner was the one who did the stabbing. Today, Cheryl Crane writes murder mysteries. Interviewed are: Cheryl Crane, Turner's daughter; Hollywood producer George Schlatter; John Ibrahim, the son of Johnny Stompanato, who doubts the official account of the crime; Eric Root, hairdresser to the stars, who says that Turner admitted to him that she did it. 3) "The Miranda Obsession" - Brian Burrough reports on Miranda Grosvenor, a woman who for the past forty years was known to have befriended, over the telephone, dozens of Hollywood actors, directors, rock stars and politicians. Self-described as a leggy, beautiful blonde, she was viewed as something of a muse to many of these powerful men. Writer Buck Henry was one of those who became a friend, and after a time he realized she was misrepresenting herself. Music producer Richard Perry became obsessed with her and demanded to meet her. When he did, in a darkened hotel room in New York City, it was clear she was not the person she was presented herself to be. He soon ended the relationship. Whoever she was, she was not a stalker -- she just called people on the phone and developed ongoing telephone relationships. For the first time since Burrough located her twelve years ago, she agreed to an interview, with the understanding that her real name not be revealed. Featured are interviews with Buck Henry; Richard Perry; and Miranda Grosvenor. Special correspondents for this 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Sam Kashner, author, "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage", Vanity Fair; Patricia Bosworth, author, "The Gangster and The Goddess", Vanity Fair; and Bryan Burrough, author, "The Miranda Obsession", Vanity Fair. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder at the Manor" - a report about Harold "H" Landry, a self-made Cajun millionaire who left behind his life in Louisiana to pursue an international romance with a British woman he met online and how this seemingly perfect relationship ended when Lucy Landry was murdered at their home in February 2010. Landry confessed to stabbing his wife to death. Landry, or "H", as he is known to his friends, is a larger-than-life man who, after making a fortune in Louisiana, went looking for love online at the age of fifty-three. In 1989, he met Lucy Davies, a 28-year-old woman with a child who lived in the United Kingdom. His friends thought the romance seemed more like a business deal, and when Lucy became pregnant, Landry settled into a new life as a retiree and new father. Ten years later, Lucy asked for a divorce. According to his friends, he was in a terrible state and didn't know what to do. Then Lucy Landry was dead. He didn't deny that he killed her. The trial began for "the American Millionaire Murderer", as he was known in England, and the past came back to haunt him. In 1994, Landry had shot a man named Chris Pine, the angry husband of his girlfriend at the time. According to his attorney, who subsequently became a friend, his defense was that it was self-defense. He listened to his lawyer and was found guilty of the much lesser charge -- aggravated battery. He appealed, and eventually all he got was probation, a fine and some community service. Shortly afterwards, he began his new life with Lucy, who, he says, knew all about his previous crime. According to his friends, the marriage was collapsing because Landry believed Lucy was having an affair. He went to Mexico to cool off and when he returned, she had moved her boyfriend into the house. He was furious; divorce proceedings began -- and then Lucy Landry was dead. Shortly afterwards, the trial began, with Landry receiving an initial advantage: the Chris Pine shooting was ruled as inadmissible. His lawyers argued that the fight was the latest and last example of Lucy goading him with never-ending financial demands and threats. In a relatively brief trial, very different from American standards, that lasted eight days, Landry was convicted of murder. On screen text graphic: Landry is planning to appeal both murder conviction and sentence, a process which may take years. Interviewed: Harold "H" Landry; Lucy Landry's son James, from a previous marriage; Landry friends Wanda and Ernie Richardson; Pat Fanning (lawyer and friend); Helen Knifton; Police Officers Steve Elcocks, Ian Booth, Barney Tyrney; Kristin Harton (Landry family babysitter from 1994); Richard Vernalls, reporter, Worcester News; Andy Childs, one of Landry's attorneys. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head - with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia - more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over: she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and-a-half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed. Onscreen text graphic: Wesley Earnest's first appeal was denied. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. Included interviews with: Wesley Earnest; his mother Patricia Wimmer; his girlfriend Shameka Wright; Jocelyn Earnest's sister Laura Rogers, mother Joyce Young and father Bill Branham; Marcy Shepherd, close friend of Jocelyn's; investigators Mike Mayhew and Gary Babb; Joey Sanzone, defense lawyer; prosecutors

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Three Days Before Christmas" - the story of sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede who in December 1990, were held hostage by two men – Von Lester Taylor and Edward Steven Deli. Taylor and Deli invaded the family cabin in Oakley, Utah and shot their mother, father and grandmother. The sisters owe their lives to their quick-thinking uncle, Randy Zorn, and their heroic father, Rolf, whose fierce determination gave him the super-human strength needed to ignore his own pain and save his daughters. The Tiede family had gone to spend Christmas at the family cabin. Sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede, only twenty and sixteen years old respectively, were forced to witness the murders of their mother and grandmother. They also planned to burn down the home and take the sisters hostage. The sisters drove the men on snowmobiles past their Uncle Randy, who realized something was dreadfully wrong. His brother, Rolf, though wounded, was somehow able to get on a snowmobile and alert Randy as to what had happened and Randy called 911. The police caught Taylor and Deli and rescued the girls. Taylor and Deli were charged with the murders, aggravated kidnapping, arson and the high-speed chase. Taylor eventually pled guilty to two counts of capital murder. He opted to go before a jury instead of a judge, and was sentenced to death for the two murders. Deli went to trial. The sisters testified at the trial, as did their father, whom Deli had not realized had survived. Deli was convicted of second degree murder, with no option for the death penalty because of a jury member holdout. Today, the family continues to return to the cabin, enjoying their life there. In November 2008, Rolf Tiede died from cancer. On screen text graphic: Von Lester Taylor, sentenced to death for two murders, has been fighting for his own life ever since. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder - and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. Updated concluding text graphic for this 12/24/11 rebroadcast: Tim Masters was exonerated in June by the Colorado Attorney General. He has received $10 million in settlements for wrongful imprisonment. Jim Broderick is under indictment for perjury in the case. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Human Trafficking

Human trafficking is happening right here in our state — maybe even in your neighborhood. Tonight, WRAL Investigates this modern day slavery. An estimated 12.3 million victims are forced into this $32 billion dollar industry worldwide. Amanda Lamb found victims of this crime right here in our community and joins us with their powerful stories.

Prescription Drug Abuse

Prescription drug deaths in North Carolina have tripled over the past decade. It's an epidemic that impacts people of all ages, all races - the rich and the poor. As WRAL Investigates found, prescription trafficking is also a big business. We found the line blurred on legal prescription drugs used illegally. The latest numbers from the Centers for Disease Control show prescription overdoses represent the nation's leading accidental killer, outpacing car crashes. It's now North Carolina's number one drug problem. WRAL tracked everything from elaborate prescription fraud to doctor shopping to plain old theft.

Wake Animal Shelter Follow-up

This story has many of you flooding our website with outrage. Just hours after yesterday's Pet of the Day segment on our noon news, the featured dog was killed by the Wake County Animal Center. WRAL News has learned the 8-month-old hound-mix named Sassy was put down around because she showed signs of an illness. The case raises new questions about the Center which is part of an ongoing WRAL Investigation into whether the shelter is too quick to kill.

Fracking

It's a heated debate between the environment and lowering our dependence on foreign fuel. That debate is gaining steam in North Carolina, which is sitting on top of large natural gas reserves. Those reserves are tapped using a process called fracking. WRAL's Cullen Browder went to Pennsylvania to investigate the pros and cons of natural gas drilling.

Wake Animal Follow-up Part 2

Our WRAL Investigation is prompting changes at the Wake County Animal Center. County leaders say the center will temporarily stop killing dogs that show symptoms of upper respiratory infections. They are also creating a new quarantine treatment area for sick pets and using antibiotics to treat those respiratory illnesses. WRAL's Renee Chou has answers after two-months of questions.

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report
October 1, 2011 – December 31, 2011

Legal marijuana is BACK. Just months after North Carolina banned the sale of the synthetic marijuana, manufacturers tweaked the ingredients. They claim the products are perfectly legal. A WRAL Investigation finds that may not be the case. Kelcey Carlson is here to explain.

ASPCA Money

Many local animal shelters say a confusing name game is hurting their ability to help animals in need. The Humane Society of the United States and the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals have no direct ties to most local shelters. Cullen Browder reports in this WRAL investigation that despite raising hundreds of millions of dollars, those groups gave little or no money to North Carolina rescue groups.

ABC Stores

The state makes a lot of money in the liquor business. About 275 million dollars are generated annually for the state and local communities where the ABC stores are located. But some stores lose money— year after year. A new law is supposed to help turn them around. So why do stores fail and what's being done about them?

Wake Animal Shelter Follow-up

One month after our WRAL investigation prompted change at the Wake County Animal Center, we're finding out if it's making a difference. From January to November, more than 900 dogs were euthanized at the center for having an upper respiratory infection. WRAL's Renee Chou joins us now with new numbers, after the center's kill policy was suspended.

Dolan vs. Officers

The Raleigh Police Department investigated several officers earlier this year amid accusations that they had sex with prostitutes. One officer, Sgt. Rick Armstrong, was cleared of that but was fired after investigators found evidence he had sex with a woman on duty. Armstrong denies that. Now another officer who worked for Dolan in Lumberton says he too was targeted and believes there is a pattern. Amanda Lamb investigates.

WRAL-TV5 Issues/Programs Quarterly Report

October 1, 2011 – December 31, 2011

In this half-hour special hosted by Jeff Gravley, we talked one-on-one with Coach K about his journey to capture a record-setting 903 wins and surpassing his mentor. We asked what role Coach Bob Knight played in Coach K's success, and how did one of his biggest rivals [Dean Smith] become one of his greatest influences. We also heard Coach K identify 5 moments that if THEY didn't happen, 903 would never have happened.

WRAL-TV Raleigh Christmas Parade

Live coverage of the 2011 WRAL-TV Raleigh Christmas Parade, presented by the Greater Raleigh Merchant's Association. Over 75,000 people lined the streets for this spectacular show, in addition to thousands more watching at home. This is the 38th consecutive year that the event was broadcast live by WRAL-TV. The parade was also streamed live on WRAL.com.

The parade was hosted by WRAL-TV morning news personalities Bill Leslie and Kelcey Carlson, with Brian Shrader serving as street-side reporter. The grand marshal of this year's parade was our own hometown chart-topping music star, American Idol Scotty McCreery.
